L. T. CURTIS, PROPRIETOR, FLINT, MICH.
Notice to Purchasers.

We commence to handle stock in the Spring about April 1st; in the fall about October 1st.

Our shipping facilities are of the best from Flint—East, West, North and South.

All goods for shipment will be delivered at Depot Free of Charge.

Our Nursery is inspected annually by the State inspector of Nurseries, as required by state law. This of itself is a great assistance to our patrons of no diseased stock and that Trees and Plants are right in every way.

We are very particular in having our trees and plants true to name. But mistakes may occur and it is mutually agreed between the purchasers and ourselves that we will not be held responsible, only so far as to replace such trees and plants on proper proof that may be found to be untrue to name, or refund the amount paid for them.

Six of a kind will be supplied at dozen rates, 50 at 100 and 500 at 1000 rates, respectively.

To all unacquainted with us we refer you to any of the four banks in Flint.

Respectfully yours,

Genesee County Nurseries,

Hardy Ornamental Trees.

While most people appreciate well-arranged and well-kept grounds, large or small, many fail to realize that they can have equally fine grounds. These have had a few Shrubs or Roses growing in thick turf; with no attention given to pruning or cultivation. Under these circumstances good results cannot be expected.

BIRCH, CUT-LEAVED WEEPING. One of the most elegant of all weeping or pendulous trees. Its tall, slender, yet vigorous growth, gracefully drooping habit, silvery white bark and delicately cut foliage present a combination of attractive characteristics rarely met with in a single tree. 6 to 8 feet 75c.

It is one of the most rapid growers among shade trees, frequently growing 8 feet during one season and thus making fine avenues in a few years. Its branches spread just enough to give it a symmetrical, commanding form of elegant appearance. It is very desirable at the roadside, in parks, along river and streams for the protection of the banks. It has advantages over other shade trees because it will grow on any kind of soil, swampy or muck, light or heavy. Its roots penetrate the heaviest; it withstands all hardships and thrives in places where others fail to live. It is easily started and gives shade in a short time. Don’t forget the Carolina Poplar. 6 to 8 ft., each, 20c; dozen, $2.00. 8 to 10 ft., 1½ to 1½ inch, each, 30c; dozen, $3.00. 10 to 12 ft., 1¾ to 2 inches, each, 50c; dozen, $5.00. Forms a perfect umbrella-shaped head, with long, slender, willowy branches, drooping to the ground. All who have seen it agree that in light, airy, graceful, leafless, delicacy of form and motion, it is without a rival. It will undoubtedly take the foremost place among weeping trees; it has beautiful foliage, is hardy, enduring the cold of the north and heat of the south, safe and easy to transplant. Admirably adapted for ornamenting small or large grounds, or for cemetery planting. One year, 75c; 2 years, $1.00.

The Hybrid Perpetuals are considered the most valuable of all roses because they bear the largest, sweetest and most brilliant colored flowers and are so hardy and vigorous they live over winter without protection and continue to bloom regularly from year to year.

CULTURE. The Rose delights in an open situation and plenty of sunshine. They do best in a rich loam, but any good soil will do if thoroughly mixed and enriched with cow or barn-yard manure. Dig deep—fully 15 inches—and thoroughly pulverize. A good surface dressing of manure in the autumn for protection against frost is advisable. This can be forked into the soil in the spring.

PRUNING. Prune early in the spring. Cut out all weak, unripe wood, leaving only the best and strongest canes. Strong growing kinds should be cut

A. GOLDIANUM. (Goldie’s Wood Fern.) This species often grows 4 feet high, with fronds a foot or more wide. Broadly ovate in outline, deep green in color. Takes kindly to cultivation in moist shades. Not evergreen. 20 cts. each, $1.50 per dozen.

A conspicuous tropical-looking evergreen plant with long, narrow leaves; the flower stalk rises from the center about three feet and is covered with creamy white, bell-shaped flowers. Perfectly hardy; similar to cactus in growth; blooms every season. Fine lawn plants, 25 cts. to 40 cts. each.
Hardy Spring and Summer-Flowering ....BULBS....

The varieties offered under this head include some of the most desirable of all summer flowers, and all are of such easy culture, succeeding in every section of the country, that there is little wonder at the immense national interest being taken.

SPRING-FLOWERING CROCUS.

The Crocus is one of the earliest flowers of spring and should occupy a prominent place in every garden. When planted as an edging in triple lines of one or more colors, the effect is striking. No spring display surpasses that of Crocus, the broad wavy bands of golden-yellow, striped, purple, or of pure white.

LARGE-FLOWERING NAMED CROCUS.

Our bulbs of named Crocus are selected largest size and will produce several flowers each. Prices, 15 cts. per dozen; 75 cts. per 100; $5.00 per 1,000.

ALBION. Violet, striped lavender and white.
BARON VON BRUNOW. Deep rich purple.
CAROLINE CHISOLM. Pure white, free.
LILACEUS. Light lilac blue.
MAMMOTH YELLOW. Large golden-yellow flowers.

SUPERIOR MIXED NARCISSUS OR DAFFODILS.

We offer these at exceptionally low prices to encourage liberal plantings. They are very suitable for growing in masses for garden decorations, and are grand for cutting, and are particularly adapted for mixed borders, “naturalizing” in shrubbery by woodland walks, in woods by streams and lakes and semi-wild outlying grounds. They are perfectly hardy and will flourish and increase. These mixtures include many beautiful varieties.

THE CHINESE SACRED OR ORIENTAL NARCISSUS.

The “Shui Sin Far,” or Water Fairy Flower, Joss Flower, or Flower of the Gods, etc., as it is called by the Celestials, is a variety of Narcissus, bearing in lavish profusion chaste flowers of silvery white, with golden-yellow cups. They are of exquisite beauty and entrancing perfume. It is grown by the Chinese, according to their ancient customs, to herald the advent of their new year and as a symbol of good luck. Each, 10c; dozen, $1.00.
SINGLE EARLY TULIPS.

Tulips are such universal favorites that it is scarcely necessary to expiate upon their merits here. Their beauty of form and gorgeous coloring render them most popular for spring bedding, while for winter flowering in the greenhouse and window garden they are incomparable. The Tulip is extremely hardy and of easy culture, blooming as freely and producing as fine flowers in a confined town garden as in a more favored place. Double and Single Tulips, when associated together and planted in front of shrubs, maintain a longer display than if either are separately planted.

Mixed Single Early-Flowering Tulips.
First quality, 2 cts. each; 20 cts. per dozen; $1.00 per 100.

DOUBLE [Early Flowering] TULIPS.

Double Tulips have massive flowers of brilliant and varied colors, shades and markings, and being double, the flowers last much longer in bloom than single varieties, and, in consequence, when singles and doubles are planted in conjunction the “time of the Tulips” is greatly prolonged. Double Tulips are beautifully adapted for beds on the lawn, in the garden, and for mingling in clumps of half a dozen or more around the edges of shrubbery. They are robust growers and exceedingly effective.

DOUBLE EARLY MIXED TULIPS. First quality. Price, 20 cts. per dozen; $1.00 per 100.

NAMED SINGLE EARLY FLOWERING TULIPS.

DUTCH HYACINTHS.

OUTDOOR CULTURE.—The bulbs may be planted any time from October to December, the earlier the better. They succeed in any good, well-drained garden soil. Set the bulbs so that the tops will be 3 or 4 inches below the surface and 6 to 10 inches apart. Before very severe weather comes on, cover the beds with straw, leaves or manure to protect them from the frost, but care should be taken that this covering is not too thick, as the bulbs are as likely to be injured by being kept too warm as by freezing; this should be removed in March.

MONTBRETIAS.

The Montbretias are one of the brightest and best of summer-flowering bulbs, and it has been a matter of wonder to us why they are not more generally used. We feel sure that if once tried they would become firm favorites. The bulbs should be planted from April to June in clumps or groups of three to a dozen or more. They are perfectly hardy, and once planted can be left to care for themselves. In growth they resemble the Gladioli, and produce spikes of the most brilliant flowers in the various shades of orange and yellow. 5¢ each; dozen, 50c.

HARDBY BEGONIAS.

EVANSIANA. A handsome and distinctive species from Java, growing about 2 feet high, with large dark green foliage and producing large, showy flesh-pink flowers in the greatest profusion. species maintain a continuous and unbroken succession of bloom until Autumn. No class of plants capable of being cultivated out-of-doors possesses so many charms; their stately habit, rich and varied colored flowers, often deliciously fragrant, and easy culture render them so distinct from all other hardy plants that no collection, however select, should be without a few of the choicer sorts.

succeed under our extreme climatic conditions, and the marvelous results obtained augur well for their continued popularity.

The most attractive of all summer-flowering bulbs are the Gladioli. Wonderful improvements have been made in recent years in the size and beauty of these flowers, and our list comprises only the best selections both in our mixtures and named sorts. Their cultivation is very simple, as they will thrive in any ordinary garden soil, but amply repay care and liberal feeding by enhanced size and beauty. A succession of bloom may be had from July to September by planting at intervals from April to June. The strongest bulbs should be kept for the latest planting. Plant six inches apart in beds or double row and three inches deep. They are very effective when planted among roses, shrubbery, etc. In the fall, before frost, the bulbs should be lifted, dried and stored in a cellar or some other position away from frost, for planting again the following spring.

GROWING OF STOCK.

Fruit trees and many ornamental trees are budded or grafted on little seedling trees, and lined out in nursery rows one foot or more apart, on the best, dryest land we have; each variety in a row by itself, and have to be thoroughly cultivated, hoed and pruned, 2 to 4 years before ready for sale. Some ornamental and shade trees are grown from cuttings and seed. Berry plants are grown from cuttings, layers and stool plants, or divided clumps. All kinds of flowering shrubs and plants the same.

Nearly all have to be transplanted or lined out and cared for same as trees.

To do all of this requires the closest care and attention, and no end to the labor. Each variety must be marked, have its spot or row, and careful cultivation. A greater or less per cent of all die in propagation or other causes, so that the margin of profit we get on the average at our prices is very small.

WELL TESTED VARIETIES.

In the past ten years we have been carefully testing a large number of varieties of the different kinds of fruit, shade and ornamental trees, and flowering shrubbery of all kinds, and have selected the best of everything, for our new catalogue. We have many different kinds of trees and plants, mostly new varieties, that we do not catalogue as the supply is limited.

Root Grafts—Budded Trees.

Our Apple and Pear Trees are all grafted. Planted properly the scion usually takes root and the tree is eventually on its own roots. A budded tree, the bud is put in the young seedling 2 or 3 inches above ground and the seedling stock is quite sure to sucker, and the suckers have to be cut off often, or they would ruin the tree. This is especially the case with Apple and Pear trees. Most of the large commercial Nurseries propagate all of their trees by budding, and their agents will tell you that they are much better and that we have only a scruppy worthless lot not true to nature, and no valuable varieties at all. They talk in this way to sell their stock at \( \frac{3}{4} \) to \( \frac{3}{2} \) more than our price.

Why Should We Replace Trees and Plants that Die?

Tree and Plant life, are quite like animal and human life, who die at all ages and under all conditions. If we should sell a lot of pigs, chickens, lambs or any other kinds of young stock and many of them should die in the first year or so, no one would expect that we should replace the dead ones free. There is no reason why this should not apply to trees and plants at our prices.

Our Nursery is inspected annually by state inspector of nurseries as required by state law. This insures our patrons against any diseased stock in any way.

In Regard to the Pleasure and Value of Fruit, Shade or Ornamental Trees, Small Fruits, Flowering Shrubs, Plants, Bulbs, Etc.

Money invested in this way and the investment properly cared for is sure to be most satisfactory.

A fruit or shade tree of the right kind, well planted in good soil is likely to last a lifetime. Grapes and most of the berries planted on good ground with good care, will be fruitful for years.

A few, or many, as you wish of ornamental trees and shrubs, flowering plants, bulbs, &c., are almost indispensable and enjoyed by all and will increase the value of any place 50 per cent of the cost.
